Foundation Update

by Doug Wood

Hello all and welcome to the tail end of this year's cruising season! The weather is starting to get cooler and our outdoor exploits may get a little bit more pleasant!

I first want to share with you a list of organizations that have made donations to us in 2023 and the amounts...

Classic Cars of Maryland - $605

Chesapeake Region AACA - $847

Lazy Eights - $100

Watersedge Rec. Council - $50

Free State VCCA - $300

Buick Owners of Maryland- $500

There have been more individuals than I can list here that have also made donations, and I wish to thank them along with the organizations listed above!

At our August cruise at the Harford Vineyard and Winery, the AACA Chesapeake Region handled all of the hosting duties. A little earlier in the summer Classic Cars of Maryland hosted a cruise to benefit us at the Fallston Barrel House...

If there are any other organizations that would like to do that sort of thing during next year's cruising season, please let us know. We are happy to help with providing a venue, and we can reap mutual benefits from such a pairing.

As most of you read in the last issue, our good friend Dan "Swish" Swisher passed away. We have decided to partner with Motorama Productions, the group that Swish worked closely with producing all of their highly successful car shows, to memorialize and honor him. We will be purchasing a Trailer to donate to the York County School of Technology in order for them to transport engines and supplies for their engine building competitions. That program is dedicated to getting young folks involved with auto mechanics just as the CCCEF strives to. This will not be an inexpensive endeavor, so, if there are any of you that wish to contribute towards this cause in particular, we are happy to accept your donations!

Our volunteers here at the CCCEF are working on several programs for next year. We hope to collect a large number of small diecast models from folks like you in order to present them to young folks at car events next year. If anyone would like to donate one or some new in the package Hot Wheels, Johnny Lightning or other quality diecast cars to our cause... Drop us a message and we will make arrangements to meet you to collect your donation.

Our Real Man's Yard Sale was a huge success this year. We will return to the Markets of Shrewsbury in 2024. The date and details will be announced at our All Clubs Breakfast, which will be on February 17, 2024. Our host again will be the Bel Air Moose Club in Forest Hill, Md.

I'm hoping that the next couple of months treat you kindly and - as always... I'll see you on the return road!

– Doug

Courtney Cavin's '49 Plymouth Suburban Wagon

Courtney Cavin, now the owner of a '49 Plymouth Suburban Wagon, has had a lot to learn since it became hers last spring. Bart Cavin, her father, has been teaching and helping her with everything he can. With his help, Courtney is able to keep a family legacy on the road.

How we found it!

Built in the late 80s by her grandfather, Ken Cavin Sr., the wagon has its own story. Pulled from the woods, the '49 Plymouth Wagon was a shell of a rusty car. Despite laughter and disbelief from friends and family, Ken went ahead with his plans, completely disassembling and discarding the chassis. In its place a new frame, new floors, rack-and-pinion steering, and Lincoln 9" rear were added, all done in Ken's garage with the help of a lot of friends. On to the body, the hood was shaved, the headlights recessed, and a BASF 85

Garnet Red paint job was added. To stay true to its Plymouth roots it is powered by a 1957 392 Hemi. Ken enjoyed the car for many years; it was featured in the December issue of Hot Rod magazine in '91. In order to expand his business, Ken parted ways with the car in 1996. In 2004, in celebration of Ken's 25th year in business, his three children located the wagon in Georgia, providing the ultimate surprise gift for him. Remarkably not much had changed, new front tires was about it. Over the years, updates were made to include new interior and updated wheels. Fast forward to last spring, where Courtney was able to keep the car in the family, becoming the new owner. Due to spending a lot of time learning the art of polishing, the 30-year-old paint and build look pretty darn good.

The wagon has been on the road more in the last year than it had been in the past decade. Bart and Courtney are looking forward to taking it to even more shows this year and to seeing friends who were part of this build three decades ago.

Collector Zone

with Andy Goodman

If you are a car guy or gals' spouse, or if you just like buying cool automobilia for yourself, it's time to start picking up those holiday diecast pieces that are making their way into retail stores and into the hands of hobby dealers nationwide. It's a good thing you're here, because we are going to share with you a first look at some new holiday diecast releases that are available right now in Walmart and Hobby Lobby locations nationwide.

M2 Machines went all out this holiday season with 3 different Holiday Collections.

Allow us to share with you an exciting holiday exclusive collection that is shipping to O'Reilly Auto Parts stores around the country now. OR03 (34500 OR03) is a 6pc ornament set. Each piece features an exclusively deco'd M2 Machines casting inside. The collection includes a 1969 Dodge Charger Daytona, 1970 Ford Mustang, 1971 Dodge Challenger Funny Car, 1972 Dodge Truck, 1973 GMC Jimmy Sierra, and a 1998 GMC Sierra 1500 4X4. Each individual ornament comes boxed in a see-through package offering collectors the option to display them in their factory packaging or take them out and hang them on your tree. There are no chase variations offered with this set, it's a simple 6pc collection.

Limited Production World Wide

Limited Production World Wide

Do you feel a little winter like chill in the air? Maybe we can send some shivers down your spine, with the insight that Walmart will be offering an Exclusive M2 Machines Coke-a-Cola Holiday collaboration in the form of a special side-kick display. Shipping inside a colorful sidekick is 8 castings – a 1932 Ford 3-window Coupe, 1960 Volkswagen Custom Truck, 1969 Ford Mustang Funny Car, 1971 Dodge Challenger Funny Car, 1973 Chevy Blazer, 1974 Dodge Truck, 1976 GMC Truck and a 1989 GMC Sierra 1500. This release does include a couple of elusive chase pieces including a Red Chrome trimmed '89 Sierra variant and an extremely limited Raw '71 Challenger Funny Car making the full variation release a 10-piece set.

M2 Machines also partnered with Walmart in a half pallet program to offer collectors an extremely limited production holiday ornament collection (34502-02). You heard that correctly. To be located somewhere near the toy area, in the center of an aisle, within select locations, you will find a half pallet loaded with 2 packs of M2 Machines ornaments. 7 different box sets in all. The collection includes duos of their 1974 Dodge W200 Power Wagon, 1970 Chevrolet Camaro, 1993 Chevrolet C1500, 1973 Chevrolet Cheyenne Super 10, 1949 Mercury Custom, 1969 Ford Mustang Funny Car and 1960 Volkswagen Custom Delivery Van. Each casting comes placed inside a clear ornament ball and the pair packaged in a clear acrylic box making them great display pieces or crack open the packaging and place them directly on your tree.

Filling a holiday stocking or wrapped under the tree if you want to score some brownie points with your grease monkey family members pick up one or more of these great for your loved one.
