Hey Readers -

This publication is dedicated to Saving the Hobby. We are working in partnership with the Custom & Classic Car Educational Foundation in reaching a new generation of car enthusiasts !

www.SaveTheHobby.org

Welcome to the October / November issue

I looked back at the last three October issues to see what I wrote about in past years, so I could just copy and paste one of those columns, or take a few minutes to come up with a new message. (I can't lie, I am starting to run out of things to say after doing this for 16 years folks).

This is our Annual Fall Ocean City Edition with the rest of 2025 events listed; a great time of the year to attend a few of them.

We are a sponsor at the East Coast Indoor Nationals, so please stop by our booth and say hello.

Look in the December issue for information on our annual All Clubs Breakfast- it's going to be bigger and better this year!

And most importantly, we would like to recruit anyone who would like to help keep our mission going, which is Saving The Hobby, exposing young people to the joys of owning vintage vehicles.

Need something for your car? Make sure you use one of our advertisers - they are the folks paying to keep your free magazine coming out.

Want to see your event in the magazine? Send your free listing to: Dave@CarCruiseGuide.com

And lastly, I need to remind you all that our print issue comes out every other month all year long. In the off months, you get to visit our site to see thousands of photos our great photographers take of your rides. Who knows.. your ride might be in one. Just put www.CarCruiseGuide.com in your favorites.

Thank you all for 16 great years, it's been a great ride!

Dave

Be sure to read our Online Update Magazine at:

CarCruiseGuide.com

Did you know you can find 1000's of car show photos in our Cruise Guide Online Editions?

Also we have photos of: Chrysler & Truck Carlisle; Tropical Treat; Jakes Tavern; Bombers Show; Hot August Nights; AACA at Harford Winery; Kent Island Cruisers Benefit Cruise; AACA Hershey Museum; MECUM Auction; Shrewsbury; Street Survivors; and Damascus Days

Folks, we just cannot find room in the print edition for all of these photos, you really should be checking out these Online editions that come out on the months we don't print. All you have to do is visit our website and click on the Online cover to view or download- put us in your favorites.

Oh yeah, starting with our September issue, we are going to award our online readers with a chance to win a special gift... let us know if you see your ride in online!

more serious than mileage and could prevent a new owner in another state from having that car registered and tagged. The terms are 'Salvage', 'Flood', or 'Reconstructed'. These brands mean at some point during the vehicle's lifetime it was in an accident, and it was so severe that an insurance company 'totaled' it (the value of the repair exceeds the actual vehicle value). Or in the case of a flood, the car was damaged by a storm and underwater for a period. Although the car looks and drives fine, you should be aware it was in a severe accident and then repaired to the point it would pass inspection in their state. It does not necessarily mean every state in the union will accept the repairs made to the vehicle and the 'branding' of the title. Each state has their own laws on 'totaled' and 'salvage' vehicles. It will also be reflected in a lower price for the car since it has a limited selling market.

These brands will follow the car for the rest of its life on the road, and it is illegal to remove them.

Finally, when a 'Lien' shows on the lower section of a title. Most people know that it means the owner took a loan out for the vehicle and the financial institution has the 'legal' ownership of it until the debt is paid in full. Once the loan is paid off a "lien release" will be issued either in the form of a letter or an official "Lien Release" (which looks like a title) and it must accompany the title for the new owner to register the vehicle.

A bit of advice, once the loan is paid off, get a new, 'clear' title (one which does not show a lien). It will save you the headaches of keeping track of a separate document and needing to replace it if lost.

Hopefully, all the terms above were clearly defined, but if they are still "clear as mud", consult your local state Title and Tag business or the state DMV.

Once again, Happy Motoring!! - J.D.

Importance of the Certificate of Title

Let's look at a document many of us car enthusiasts take for granted and really do not review until the last minute.....THE CERTIFICATE OF TITLE.

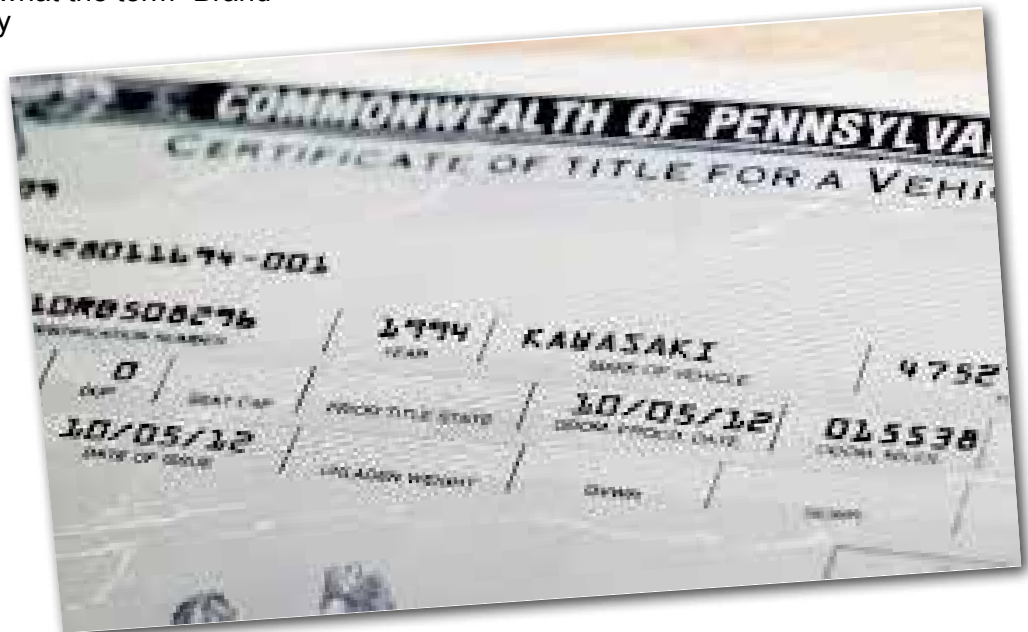

Most of the time when it arrives in its traditional brown envelope from the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV), we know what it is and just put it in a file until we decide to sell the vehicle and never look at it. This could be a big mistake because when the day finally comes and you sell your classic ride and the VIN (vehicle identification number) or spelling of the name is wrong or even possibly there is a "Brand" or "Lien" on it, the new owner might not be able to get the vehicle titled in their state and the deal falls through.

If the VIN is wrong, in most cases, you may have to take the vehicle to a DMV location and/or present proof from the past with supporting documentation, that the number needs to be corrected. The DMV signs off and you wait for the new title. In some cases, this could take up to 4 weeks.

If there is a spelling error in the owner's name, once again, some form of proof needs to be presented to the DMV for a new title and it could take several weeks before the new title arrives.

Many people do not know what the term "Brand" means on titles and it is a very important term any automobile owner should understand. When looking at the mileage stated on a title, there is normally a letter next to it. The meanings are: A) the actual mileage, B) the mileage exceeds mechanical limits (the cars actual mileage was beyond the life expectancy of the vehicle), or C) not actual mileage. In most states, none of these 'brands' will restrict someone from getting a title, but it is something to look for on a title if the vehicle is advertised as "Original Mileage".

The next "Brand" which could appear on a title, is

Foundation Update

by Doug Wood

The Cruise Guide is a Sponsor of the Foundation

Hello Friends and Cruisers,

It is a beautiful Saturday afternoon as I write this. The yardwork is done and I'm sitting out behind my garage in my rocking chair enjoying the beautiful breeze. My bet is that many of you are at one of the many car events in our area and I hope you're enjoying the weather as much as I am!

By the time you read this, the CCCEF Car Show will have already happened and I'm hoping you came and helped support our mission. The next big event in the area is Endless Summer Cruisin Ocean City. Be sure to make your way down there and check the schedule, as we will be hosting a car show at the Convention Center. We will select some junior judges to choose five of the 10 cars that we will recognize at the event.

The next big event for us will be the East Coast Indoor Nationals at the Timonium Fair Grounds. There, we hope to debut our Soap Box Derby Car entry for the Bel Air Town Derby. Also, at the show we will come up with some sort of selection process or contest to find a driver for the car. The young person, boy or girl, needs to be between 7 and 12 years of age. If you think you know someone that may be interested in piloting our entry, keep an eye on our Facebook page, and in the pages of this magazine.

After that, we will be up at Dragfest in Lebanon, Pennsylvania, the first full weekend of January. That is a great car show, particularly if you are a drag racing fan as many of the exhibits are current and past drag racing machines. Stop by and see us.

Now I want to touch on a topic that is sure to upset some people, but most people will applaud. I have been involved in several clubs, nonprofits, as well as management teams at employers in the last 50 years. One of the things that disappoints me is when you have a conversation with an individual, which should be held in confidence, whether it's requested or not, and somehow the subject matter is shared with other folks. In almost every case that I've seen in my years, this causes some consternation between members, friends or family members.

As adults, we most certainly should have learned by now that we need to STAY IN OUR LANE. The best way to keep friends and possibly influence new ones is to show that you can be trusted as a sounding board. You may not agree with their point of view, but you've been trusted with information that should be held close to your vest. I can't count the number of times that an occurrence such as this has caused employment issues, friends to lose friends and organizations to lose valued members. Let's all try to be that confidant to whomever we may share our life and times with.

Here's hoping that you enjoy the rest of this cruising season and I'll see you on the return road.... Doug

The Custom & Classic Car Educational Foundation needs your help. We are looking for like minded car enthusiasts to join us. If you share a passion for our classics and want to do your part to preserve them for future generations, please reach out to us. We need help with fundraising, planning, and helping at events. Reach out to Doug 410-456-2227, or Dave 410-937-6866

We have helped numerous young people with education assistance through the years. Our first recipient, Jordan Shara recently had this quote in the Hagerty publication:

Jordan reminds us:

"Keeping and maintaining relationships within the car community is paramount. It all starts on a small scale - helping out your local car club, organizing events, donating to classic car clubs, foundations, etc..."

Jordan, you nailed it. Our greatest strength is each other.

– McKeel Hagerty, Chairman and CEO Hagerty Insurance.

Car Show Update

We often are sent incomplete information from show promoters. The listings or flyers I get sometimes are missing addresses, phone numbers, town, state, etc. I no longer will spend time researching this information; I simply will put what I get in the magazine and website. Please do not call me asking for these details; I don't know any more than you do. I've even contacted some show promoters asking for the phone number and they replied: "I don't want them bothering me". So my suggestion is if you have any questions, just find another event to attend.

Reader's Rides

Sue Lohmeyer's '41 Willys

I love my 41 Willys for two major reasons, one, I've always dreamed of having one, clipped calendar photos, went to car shows and took photos of all the 40-41 Willys I could find, bought Matchbox cars too when I saw them. I could never afford one but have dreamed of having one since I was a teen. 6 years ago my wonderful husband found one and couldn't keep the secret for a day! We went and saw it and that was it! He got it for me! I'll never forget that day and how special my 41 Willys is but more important how special my husband is!

I've owned my beautiful car for almost 6 years come January of '26.

I'm so blessed. I got the car turn-key however, there were some things that needed immediate mechanical repair which we had done the first year and some more upgrades done as the years went on. I still wanted to make it my own.

So, I finally got the interior done by Fly Boys Rods out of Horsehead NY and replaced the gauges with Speedhut custom gauges to go with the interior with the Willys Logo on each gauge. She has an HP 454 engine, Turbo 400 trans, Billet Specialties wheels with the rears being 18x31x20, Currie rear, Flaming River rack and pinion, Vintage AC, Holley Sniper fuel injection and air ride suspension. She has a "Viper red" paint job with ghost flames on the front nose.

Have a Car or Truck with an interesting story? Or some cool old photos?

Why not share it with our readers and see it printed in the magazine!
